In celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation and 20 years of the Bach Cantata Program at St Johns Southgate the church is holding an art prize and exhibition from October to December. Details can be found at www.stjohnssouthgate.com.au

Young people under the age of 16 are invited to participate in our children's art prize and exhibition called the children's view

Entry categories: under 8; 8–14; 15–16 years

Total prize money of $500. No entry fee

We invite you to submit a painting, drawing, sculpture or ceramic on the topic the joy in all things

The work must not be bigger than 100 x 100cm (2 dimensional artwork) or 100 x 100 x 100cm (3 dimensional artwork)

The work and a completed entry form (refer www.stjohnssouthgate.com.au) should reach St Johns Southgate by 5pm on 6 October 2017. The entry form must be signed by your parent or guardian.

The work does not need to be framed

The works will be assessed and those chosen for exhibition will be hung at St Johns Southgate from 19 October to 3 December 2017

You will be notified if your work has been selected for exhibition and invited to attend the exhibition's opening on the evening of Thursday 19 October 2017 along with your family

If you wish to have your work returned to you at the end of the exhibition, you must make arrangements for this yourself (as explained on the entry form)

Any questions or enquiries should be addressed to the art prize committee by email: stjohnssouthgate@internode.on.net
